School Mural Update

After brainstorming with parents and teachers, Todd Polich has begun some of his preliminary work for the Mural. He has also had a chance to visit the various classes, and he has conducted an art-based lesson with them. Todd will begin working outside on the mural after spring break. A list will be sent home after spring break letting parents know when their child's class will be painting. Parents are invited to help and paint along with their children.

More PAC Updates

Clothing Drive

The PAC had another successful clothing drive with 88 bags collected. That puts our total bags for this year at 213. We are very close to reaching our goal of 300 bags. Stay tuned for the date of our last clothing drive of the school year. Thanks to everyone who donated and volunteered. Thanks to Pat and all her volunteers for all their work.

Panago Fundraiser

Our latest Panago fundraiser wrapped up this week, and the PAC raised about $1,200! Thank you to all the parents who purchased these great gift cards. Thanks to May, Marcia and all the volunteers who helped pull this fundraiser together.

Scholastic Book Fair

The Scholastic book fair was a huge success, and it was so fun for the kids. The sales from the book fair were $2,868! That's $500 more than we made last year. The PAC will give the teachers and the librarian the commission made from the book sales to buy books for their classrooms. The commission will work out to about $93 per class. Thanks to Laura and all the volunteers who helped make this event possible.
